Freitag, 24. April 2020 During the Corona Crises Antrow has helped to companies to them be able to work in Home office

Because of the demand to let employees work from home, Antrow have helped 2 companies migrate the local customer and Production MS-Access applications to a cloud web app based platform. Antrow worked 24/7 to do the migration and could within 14 days present the go live version. The impact for the companies because of Corona is now reduced and the company can continue daily operations from their home office.
